What's in the FCE for Schools writing exam?

Content:

Students are required to produce two pieces of writing. The first piece is compulsory and will be an essay of 140–190 words. For the second, they can choose from an article, email/letter, essay, review or story of 140–190 words.

Summary

Time allowed: 1 hour 20 minutes

Number of parts: 2

Number of questions: Part 1: one compulsory question

Part 2: one question from a choice of four, including one set text question

Marks: 20% of total

Types of task: Article, email, essay, letter, review, story.

Part 1

Students are given an essay title and two ideas. They write an essay giving their opinion about the title, using the ideas given and adding an idea of their own. The title will be a subject of general interest – students won't need any specialised knowledge.

What do I have to practise? Giving an opinion and providing reasons for that opinion.

How many questions are there? One compulsory question.

How much do I have to write? 140–190 words.

Part 2

What's in Part 2? A choice of four questions. The answer students have to write will be one of the following: article, email/letter, essay, review, story.

What do I have to practise? Writing different types of text: articles, essays, letters/emails, reviews. Depending on the question, students will have to advise, compare, describe, explain, express opinions, justify and/or recommend something.

How many questions are there? Students choose one question from a choice of four, including one set text question.

How much do I have to write? 140–190 words

How is the exam assessed?

There are four assessment criteria for the Writing tasks:

Content: focuses on how well you have completed the task, in other words, if you have done what you were asked to do.

Communicative Achievement: focuses on how appropriate the writing is for the task (for example, is the style right for a magazine article?), and whether you have used the right register, for example formal or informal.

Organisation: focuses on the way you put together the piece of writing, in other words, if it's logical and ordered.

Language: focuses on vocabulary and grammar. This includes the range of language, as well as how accurate it is.

4 essentials for good answers

1. Answer the question
2. Plan
3. Use paragraphs
4. Revise your work

Make sure you answer the question exactly and no more.

It is essential to plan your writing. This should take at least 5 minutes to plan for each question.

In a relatively short piece of writing you will need 4 or 5 paragraphs. The first paragraph will be your introduction. Paragraphs 2, 3 and perhaps 4, will contain the body of your answer, and the last paragraph your concluding comments.

Allow at least 5 minutes for each question to check your answer. Look out for silly mistakes with tenses, word order, spellings etc.

Part 1: Writing essays

Introduction and tips (Writing essays)

1. ANSWER THE QUESTION.
 2. PLAN your essay.
 3. REVISE your essay to correct mistakes.
 4. 4 or 5 PARAGRAPHS, with introduction and conclusion.
- The first paragraph should be a general introduction.
 - In the middle paragraphs develop your arguments. Give reasons to support your argument. Use a variety of discussive words and phrases. Give examples where possible. Use formal language. Don't use contractions (we're, I've etc.)
 - The final paragraph is the best place to express your opinion clearly.

Useful phrases (Writing essays)

Presenting two advantages or disadvantages together:

- not only ... but ... also
- not only ... but also

Presenting two opposing views:

- on the one hand, on the other hand

Expressing Contrast:

- nevertheless
- even so
- even though
- however
- in spite of
- despite
- but
- although

Expressing results:

- because of this
- therefore
- thus
- as a result
- for this reason
- consequently

Giving examples:

- such as
- like
- for example
- for instance

Expressing the opinion of someone else:

- some people say
- some people say that
- many people say
- many people say that
- people often say
- it is said
- it is said that
- according to

Sample questions (Writing essays)

1. You have done a project on transport in your English class. Your teacher has asked you to write an essay giving your opinions on the following statement.

Because cars are so convenient public transport has no future.

Write your essay in 140-190 words in an appropriate style.

2. You have had a discussion on fashion in your English class. Your teacher has asked you to write an essay, giving your opinions on the following statement.

Young people never want to dress the same as their parents

Write your essay in 140-190 words in an appropriate style.

3. You have had a discussion on the media's treatment of famous people in your English class. Your teacher has asked you to write an essay, giving your opinions on the following statement.

Famous people such as footballers, film stars and politicians, deserve to have a private life without journalists constantly following them.

Write your essay in 140-190 words in an appropriate style.

Part 2.1: Writing formal letters or emails

Introduction (Writing formal letters or emails)

Writing formal letters is a necessary skill that you need for most ESL or EFL exams at Intermediate Level and above.

Examples:

- You are given an article to read from a newspaper. You write to the newspaper disagreeing with the article.
- You write to complain about something.
- You write making suggestions about something.
- You write requesting information.
- You write giving information.
- You write requesting permission.

Useful phrases (Writing formal letters or emails)

a) Writing formal letters generally:

Greetings:

- Dear Sir
- Dear Madam
- Dear Sir/Madam
- Dear Mr Brown
- Dear Ms Jones etc.

Reason for writing:

- I am writing in response to your article/advertisement/letter
- I am writing with regard to your article/advertisement/letter
- I am writing regarding your article/advertisement/letter
- I am writing on behalf of

Ending the letter:

- I look forward to receiving your reply
- I look forward to your reply
- I look forward to hearing from you
- I am, yours faithfully (if you don't know the name of the person you are writing to)
- I am, yours sincerely (if you know the name of the person you are writing to)
- Yours faithfully
- Yours sincerely

b) Writing formal letters to complain:

Reason for writing:

Sample questions (Writing formal letters and emails)

1. You are helping to organise a visit to an English Language Academy in Manchester. You have received a letter from John Webster, the director of the Academy. Read the letter and the notes you have made. Then write a letter to Mr Webster using all your notes.

I am very glad to see that you are coming to our academy in July. I am sure you will all have a very enjoyable time and that you will learn a lot of English.

You can either stay all together in a youth hostel, or individually with local families. Please tell me which you would prefer.

Tell me something about your group so that I can organise interesting spare time activities. What sort of things do they like doing?

Please ask if you need any further information.

Yours sincerely,

John Webster

Your notes:

- Paragraph 1 – learning a lot of English is very important because
- Paragraph 2 – say which you prefer, and why.
- Ask what the weather's like in Manchester and what clothes you will need.

Write your letter in 140-190 words. You must use grammatically correct sentences with accurate spelling and punctuation in a style appropriate for the situation.

2. Write 140-190 words in an appropriate style.

You have just returned from a trip to Canada. You flew there and back with Maple Air. You decide to write to the airline to complain about your flight and ask for some money back.

Read the advertisement and the notes you made and then, using the information, write a letter to the airline. You may add other relevant points of your own.

FLY MAPLE AIR TO CANADA

We offer:

- 3 flights a day
- wide, comfortable seats
- friendly, well-trained staff
- a good choice of food – special diets no problem
- the latest in-flight entertainment

Phone 0179 765893 now or see your travel agent for more details.

Your notes:

- Late boarding
- Staff quite rude
- No vegetarian food for me
- Old film

Write your letter of complaint. Do not include any postal addresses.

3. Your parents have seen the following advertisement.

IVY GRANGE HEALTH FARM

A marvellous experience and wonderful opportunity to get you fit.

Individualised health and fitness programmes in charming rural setting.

They want you to send an email to ask for further details including answers to the following questions:

Where?

Places available in August?

How much for a week?

Drinking allowed?

Any trips?

What type of exercise?

Write an email in 140-190 words in an appropriate style.

Part 2.2: Writing informal letters or emails

Introduction (Writing informal letters or emails)

Writing informal letters and emails involves writing letters or emails to friends or relatives.

When writing an informal letter or email our language is more relaxed and we are able to use abbreviations which is rare in other forms of English writing, except perhaps when using direct speech.

Look also at “Writing Formal Letters and Emails” and compare.

Useful phrases (Writing informal letters or emails)

Informal Letters - Greetings:

- Dear Jim
- Hello Jim
- Hi Jim

Informal Letters - Introductory paragraph:

- Sorry I haven't written for ages
- Sorry it's taken me so long to write
- How's it going?
- How are you?
- How are things with you?
- How are things?

An informal letter referring to good news:

- Glad to hear about
- I'm really glad to hear about
- I'm very happy to hear about
- I was very happy to read about
- Great news about your

An informal letter referring to bad news:

- I'm extremely sorry to hear about
- I'm very sorry to hear about
- Sorry to read about
- Its very sad to hear about your
- I can't tell you how sad I am that

Informal Letters - Introducing points

- By the way
- Did you hear about
- Did you see
- Have you seen
- Tell me about
- Oh, another thing

Ending an informal letter or email:

- Well, time to go
- Well, it's time to go
- Well, got to go
- Well, time to close

- I've got to leave off now
- Write soon
- Make sure you write soon
- Love
- Lots of love
- All my love
- Will write again soon
- Look after yourself
- Take care of yourself
- All the best
- Everything good

Sample Questions (Writing Informal Letters and emails)

1. Write 140-190 words in an appropriate style

Your Scottish friend, Maggie, has sent you an email asking you to help her organise a special surprise birthday party for her brother Rupert. Read Maggie's email and the notes you have made. Then write an email to Maggie using all your notes..

We must make sure that Rupert doesn't know we are planning this surprise. I'm not sure how many people to invite but our house is definitely too small. Do you think we should book the Royal hotel for the evening and have the party there? You know that Rupert is very keen on music so we could hire a live band.

I've also been wondering what we could all buy as a present. What do you think?

Could you come the day before the party to help with preparations. There's a lot to plan so I'd really like your help. Can you suggest something else that will really make the party special?

All for now.

best wishes,

Anne

Your notes:

- Paragraph 1 - Royal Hotel sounds OK but very expensive
- Paragraph 2 - Rupert really enjoys fishing
- Paragraph 3 - Sorry, busy that day.
- Paragraph 3 - Something else - Yes, how about

Write your email. You must use grammatically correct sentences with accurate spelling and punctuation in a style appropriate for the situation.

2. Write 140-190 words in an appropriate style.

You are studying in Britain and you've recently received a letter from a friend, Susan, who is interested in arranging a day trip for a group of students. Read Susan's letter, the advertisement and the notes you have made. Then write a letter to Susan, using all your notes.

..... and the students in my class are really interested in going on a day trip. I know you went on a boat trip with your class recently. Could you tell me what it was like and whether you'd recommend it?

Susan

Castle and Lake Boat Trips

- Departures 9 a.m. or 11 a.m. daily
- Lunch at restaurant
- Afternoon at lake with choice of water sports
- Reasonable prices with reductions for groups

Your notes:

- Earlier boat less crowded
- Take a packed lunch because
- You must try(watersport)
- Group minimum is 15

Write your letter. You must use grammatically correct sentences with accurate spelling and punctuation in a style appropriate for the situation.

3. Your friend, Jim, has written you an email, part of which says:

My parents have given me some money for passing my exams. I don't know whether to spend it on going to watch United in Madrid, or whether I should save up a bit more and buy some clothes. What do you think?

Write an email in reply in 140-190 words.

Part 2.5: Writing stories

Introduction and tips (Writing stories)

- ANSWER THE QUESTION
- PLAN your story.
- REVISE your story to correct mistakes.
- Give your story a title.
- Make sure you have at least 4 paragraphs.

Paragraph 1 – background information.

Paragraphs 2 and 3 - the main part of the story.

Paragraph 4 – EITHER the climax or key moment of the story OR what happened after the climax.

Remember

Don't change the words you are given at all.

Read the words you are given carefully. Sometimes you can choose whether to start or finish with the words. At other times you have no choice.

Use past continuous for background information. For example – It was raining heavily as we left the house....

Use past perfect before the main events of the story. but Anne had kindly lent me her umbrella.

Use simple past for the main events. There wasn't a single person on the street.

Try to include some direct speech.

You can use contraction (haven't, couldn't etc). But a story should not be as informal as an email to a friend, for example.

- Eventually

Phrases for dramatic effect:

- Suddenly
- All of a sudden
- Without warning
- Out of the blue
- Just at that moment
- Quite unexpectedly
- As if from nowhere

Direct speech:

- ".....", said Fred
- ".....", shouted Fred
- ".....", screamed Fred
- ".....", whispered Fred
- ".....", announced Fred.
- ".....", thought Fred
- ".....", cried Fred
- ".....", promised Fred

Concluding stories:

- When it was all over
- Looking back now
- In retrospect
- In the end
- After all that had happened

Further examples from Flo-Joe, for all writing types, can be found on this page. A great site with authentic answers + marking with codes included.

Exam English Help is another very good site with FCE Writing Samples and advice.

Finally

We at Brays hope that the information you have read helps you master the English language.

The fact that you have read this far should prove useful. But, obviously, the more you write, the better you become, especially if you have a good teacher to guide you.

To get the best from what you have read you need now to go to the next important stage:

- Select a question!
- Answer it
- Ask a tutor to guide you through the correction
- Repeat the process
- Repeat again and again

The more practice and guidance you have, the better you will become.

If you don't have someone with a sufficiently high level to guide you then contact us here. If you live in Santander or Getafe we have small classes specialising in correction of writings and spoken English (with free online courses for FCE or FCE for Schools)

Online tutoring

If you are unable to attend one of our academies Sarah Bray provides very thorough online tutorials, with a free online course, via Skype. Sarah is a Management graduate from Warwick University with a Masters from Cranfield. She also has an 'A' grade Cambridge CELTA certificate and is a highly rated expert in the English teaching field. This link will take you to her Linked In profile. She can be contacted by phone on (00 34) 916 823977.

Online Course

If you intend taking the FCE exam you can find an excellent online course, with 100-150 hours of practice covering all sections of the exam, and including over 50 exam papers, on this page. This course is completely free for students of Brays.

The Spanish version of the page can be accessed here.

Every success with your exams, and in life.

Enjoy your English,

Alan Bray
